Police Puzzled by Theft of Unique Pantyhose

Victim of Robbery Left Struggling in Pantyhose Bonds

Starring Peaches and Monique Shay

(T&G News Service) Police are investigating the apparent robbery of a pantyhose executive. The apparent object of the robbery was newly designed pantyhose. The victim, Ms. Peaches, told police that she was confronted in her bedroom by a masked woman armed with a gun. "I did what she told me. Why did she have to tie those pantyhose in my mouth? I suggested that she gag me with my silk scarf, but she insisted on the pantyhose...they're great to wear. but as gags they need a better flavor", the executive told T&G. Later we over heard the executive on her cellphone..."Look, a girl never knows when she's going to get gagged with her pantyhose or have her favorite guy...well, you know. A little touch of honey or strawberry flavor would do wonders for the experience..."
